

T.M. 24.

1853 ?

1853

70

My Dear bro —

A. J. Davis

11th June

The war between Despotism & Liberty has fairly begun. The Convention has already accomplished a good work. Your visit and speeches have wrought out for you a considerable weight of glory — Your paper is now signed after by several citizens, and many will henceforth read it for your sake, as well as for their own. Please refer upon the time & place for another Convention, and the Committee to conduct preliminaries. I will write and enclose money soon. Katie with me sends deep affection —

A. J. Davis.

April 21
My dear brother
The war between England & Ireland has just begun. The cause is already necessary. I had a great deal to say about it and I have written out for you a considerable length of paper.
I have written in your opinion after the manner of writing, and I hope will be useful to you if for your sake or for the sake of the cause. Please after the time of your convention, and the committee to conduct the business will write and enclose you. I am with you
Dear brother
A. J. Davis